

Alexandra-Ioana ARSENE is a Ph.D. student at the Human and Social Sciences Doctoral School at Transilvania University of Braşov. Her Ph.D. thesis is entitled Factual Literature Vasile Ernu, Ivan Jablonka and Svetlana Aleksievici. Books: Translation from Romanian into French of "Les vendeurs d'illusions" (2019). Participant in the International Conference "Litterature et Politique: Sommes-nous encore Modernes?" (2022) in the English Panel, with the Svetlana Aleksievici: Beyond Confession and Censorship. Areas of research: trauma literature, documentary literature, fact versus fiction, contemporary literature and social sciences.

Mamadou Lamine BALDÉ has a Ph.D. in Comparative Literature and teaches at the "Assane Seck" University of Ziguinchor, Senegal. He is specialized in French and francophone literature and had a "Eugen Ionescu" study grant at the Ştefan cel Mare University of Suceava, offered by the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie.

Tudor-Cosmin CHELARIU is a Ph.D. student at the Human and Social Sciences Doctoral School at Ştefan cel Mare University of Suceava. Title of the Ph.D. thesis: Geo Bogza – The ages of creation. Books (selective): Unsent letters (2013). Areas of research: Romanian literature, cultural history, book-review, theory of literature.

Onoriu COLĂCEL, Ph.D., is a professor in English and Ph.D. coordinator at Ştefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Romania. He has written on the contemporary English novel and on the Romanian and Moldovan literary cultures and visual media. His authored books include Postcolonial Readings of Romanian Identity Narratives (2015) and The Romanian Cinema of Nationalism. Historical Films as Propaganda and Spectacle (2018). He co-edited (with Anastasiya Astapova, Corneliu Pintilescu and Tamás Scheibner) Conspiracy Theories in Eastern Europe. Tropes and Trends (2021).

Emanuel COPILAŞ, Ph.D., is an associate professor and Ph.D. coordinator at the Political Science Department, West University of Timişoara, Romania, with focus on Eastern Europe during the communist period, theory of international relations and modern political theory/philosophy. He has published scientific articles and book chapters both in Romanian and foreign journals/books, several books at publishing houses like Polirom, Institutul European, Cetatea de Scaun, Adenium, Alexandria, Tritonic and the Publishing House of the West University of Timişoara, and various journalistic articles. He participated at numerous international conferences, in countries like the Republic of Moldova, Hungary, Poland, Croatia, Mexico, Argentine, Peru and Chile.

Claudia COSTIN, Ph.D., is a professor at Ştefan cel Mare University of Suceava, the Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, director of the Department of Romanian Language and Literature and Communication Sciences, coordinator of the International Colloquium Man and Myth, executive director of the Research Centre Inter Litteras. She is also Ph.D. coordinator in the field of Philology. Books: Structuri mitice și simboluri dominante în dramaturgia lui Lucian Blaga (2003; 2016), Repere în istoria literaturii române medievale (2005), Folclor literar românesc (2007), Folkloric Aspects of the Romanian Imaginary and Myth (2018), Limbaj și cultură (2019). Areas of research: etnologie și folclor, mitologie română, dramaturgie românească, literatură italiană, literatură română (epoca veche și pașoptistă).

Gabriela-Cătălina DANCIU, Ph.D., is a visiting professor at the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Journalism and Communication Sciences, Department of Cultural Anthropology and Communication; with a Ph.D. in Sociology at the Faculty of Sociology and Social Work, University of Bucharest, MSc in Political Science (SNSPA); a BA in Political Science, Faculty of Philosophy, "Al.I. Cuza" University Iași. Teaching and research interests: political marketing, political advertising, foundations of social sciences, online communication, Gustian School. Doctoral dissertation topic: Survival strategies of the Gustian School 1939-1948.

Mircea A. DIACONU, Ph.D., is a professor of Romanian literature and vice-rector at Ştefan cel Mare University of Suceava. His first published volume was Poezia de la „Gândirea" (1997). He also published: La Sud de Dumnezeu. Exerciții de luciditate (2005); Atelierele poeziei (2005); Calistrat Hogaș. Eseu monografic (2007); Cui i-e frică de Emil Cioran? (2008); Biblioteca română de poezie postbelică (2016). He is the recipient of the Writers' Association of Iași Award (1998, 2000, 2009), and was nominated for the Award (2003) of the Romanian Writers' Union. He was also a jury member of the jury for the Romanian Writers' Union for several editions.

Constantin Florin DOMUNCO, Ph.D., is a lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Faculty of Educational Sciences, at the Department of Education Sciences. Scientific articles (selective): The Role of Informal Communication Networks in Academic Careers (2022); Goffman's Self and the Dramaturgical Model of Everyday Life (2021); Professional Obtaining & Becoming Model – a Way to Explain Unequal Academic Career Paths (2018); Informal communication networks and professional evolutions in academic career (2017); Highlights for the Construction of a Didactic Discourse Focused on the Learning Subject in "Kung Fu Panda" Animation (2016). Areas of research: sociology of emotions, sociology of education, educational management, educational marketing, communication techniques, learning techniques.

Axel Richard EBA is a teacher-researcher at the Department of Modern Literature at the University Alassane OUATTARA of Bouaké. He is a specialist in French literature and civilisation. His research focuses on kitsch, Marcel Proust, consumer society, cultural industries and the French novel.

Fridolin ASSEKO ELLA, has a Ph.D. in Philology, French and Francophone literature, option Literature, arts and cultural imaginations. Affiliated with CRELAF and CELIG laboratories at Omar Bongo University / Libreville Gabon. Specialist in Gabonese poetry and author of several scientific articles in the field of poetry.

Ioan FĂRMUȘ, Ph.D., is a lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, the Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, the Department of Romanian Language and Literature. He obtained a Ph.D. degree in Philology with the thesis entitled Looking back, the Reader. Hypostases of the Reader in Romanian Prose Fiction (2013). He participated in different national and international scientific workshops, and his works were published in conference volumes. He also published articles and studies in various scientific journals, such as "Meridian Critic", "Transilvania", "Comunicare Interculturală și Literatură", "Philologica Jassyensia", "Vatra".

Dorel FÎNARU, Ph.D., is a professor at the Department of Romanian Language and Literature, Faculty of Letters and Communication Science, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava. He teaches courses in Theory of language and general linguistics, Philosophy of language, Pragmatics, Rhetorics, Poetics, Stylistics. He is also the author of the following books: Ars poetica eminesciană (2006), Eugeniu Coșeriu, Omul și limbajul său (2009), Analiza discursului poetic (2014), Lingvistica limbilor lumii (2015), Mic tratat de teorie a limbii și lingvistică generală (2016), Dicționar de retorică poetică (2020).

Antoniu-Alexandru FLANDORFER, Ph.D., has been visiting lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University in Suceava for over a decade. He has a Ph.D. in Philosophy and is currently a Ph.D. student in Philology. In 2016, he published his Ph.D. thesis The critique of the ethico-philosophical fundamentals of National Socialism. His main areas of research include: the collective imaginary, symbolic communication, mythanalysis of the social framework, and paradigm shifts.

Delia Casiana FLOREA is a Ph.D. student at the Doctoral School of Philosophy, Faculty of Philosophy at Al.I. Cuza University of Iași, with a paper on the theme of Meeting Phenomenology. She is also a tenured teacher at Economic College Mangalia since 2005 (teacher certification – level I, obtained in 2014). She graduated in 2003 from the Faculty of Philosophy and Social-Political Sciences at the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași.

Abdelouahed HAJJI is a Ph.D. student at the Faculty of Letters and Human Sciences, Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdellah University of Fez-Morocco. He has published a series of articles on literary and philosophical issues in the Moroccan daily newspapers "Libération" and "Al Bayane".

He has participated in several national and international scientific events. His Ph.D. thesis deals with the criticism of writers and the theory of literature in the works of Milan Kundera and Abdelfattah Kilito. Among her publications: “La question de l’aimance dans Correspondance ouverte de Abdelkébir Khatibi et Rita El Khayat” (2019); “Les formes de mobilité dans Désert de Jean Marie Gustave Le Clézio” (2020); “L’Histoire à l’épreuve de l’humour et de l’ironie dans La Plaisanterie de Milan Kundera” (2021); “La relecture de la mémoire littéraire arabe classique chez Abdelfattah Kilito” (2022) etc.

Otilia HEDEȘAN, Ph.D., is a professor at the West University of Timișoara, vice-rector (2012-2020), dean of the Faculty of Letters, History and Theology of UVT (2009-2012), vice-president of Panel V – Humanities, of the CNATDCU, Ph.D. coordinator since 2008. She is the director of several research projects obtained through national and international competition. She is a founding member of the Romanian Society of Cultural Anthropology, member of the Writers’ Union – Timișoara branch, member of the editorial boards of the journals “Studia Universitatis Babeș-Bolyai”, “Memoria ethnologica”, “Journal of Ethnography and Folklore”, member of the Scientific Council of the Ipotești Memorial and of the Scientific Council of the Ethnography Museum of the Caransebeș Border Regiment. Books: Mă razumești, fata mea...; Note de teren pe Valea Morava; Angoasele cititorului de antropologie; Folclorul. Ce facem cu el?; Pentru o mitologie difuză; Șapte eseuri despre strigoi. Research areas: ethnology and folklore, mythology, cultural anthropology, naratology.

Dana HUMOREANU, Ph.D., is a visiting lecturer at the Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences and journalist at “Monitorul de Suceava”. She has a Ph.D. in Philology and her Ph.D. thesis, Codes and their semiolinguistic interpretation in medical language, was published under the title What did you mean, doctor...? The medical message: codes and interpretation, at the Ștefan cel Mare University Publishing House, Suceava, in 2017. She also published in national and international journals on themes related to discourse analysis, journalism and medical language.

Emanuela ILIE, Ph.D., is an associate professor at the Romanian Literature Department, the Faculty of Letters at Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași. Her areas of interest include: Romanian and comparative literature and their didactics, body studies, exile studies, and cancer narratives. Among others, she is the author of the following books: The poets’ hieroglyphs (2008); Basarab Nicolescu. A monographic essay (2008); The critical dictionary of the Iași contemporary poetry. Authors. Books. Themes (2011, 2013); Fantastic and otherness (2013); Bodies, exiles, therapies (2020). She also edited or co-edited several scientific volumes with different inter- and pluri-disciplinary topics (the most recent: Doina Ruști. Worlds, histories, “symbolic combinations” – 2022). She is a member of the Romanian Writers’ Union and other cultural or academic associations.

Bianca Maria LUCANU is a Ph.D. student at the Doctoral School of Social and Human Sciences at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava. Her doctoral research interests focus on the evolution of the Romanian lexicon regarding the traditional costume. Areas of research: formation of Romanian terminology regarding the evolution of fashion and traditional wear; the timelessness of terms regarding the evolution of fashion and traditional wear.

Petru-Ioan MARIAN-ARNAT, Ph.D., is a lecturer of Communication Studies at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences. He is working in the fields of mass-media research, communication sciences, and cultural studies.

Valentina-Andrada MINEA is a Ph.D. candidate in Religious Studies at the University of Bucharest. Her doctoral research is focused on involving anime in interreligious dialogue. She is the author of several scientific articles on anime and religion and wants to continue analysing cultural phenomena and their religious implications.

Răzvan MITU graduated in 2019 from the Faculty of Letters at the Transilvania University of Brașov, having a BA in Chinese-Romanian and a MA in Cultural Innovation from the same faculty. Starting from 2021, he is a Ph.D. candidate at the Transilvania University in Brașov, majoring in Philology, with a thesis entitled Hemispheres of the novel: contemporary Western and Chinese narrative. His research center around world literature studies and his areas of interest are literary theory, comparative literature, history of ideas and Chinese literature.

Célia MUGNIER is a Ph.D. student (Comparative Literature/Slavonic studies) from the Université Grenoble Alpes since September 2019. She graduated from the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon in June 2019. She also spent one year teaching French as a foreign language at the Moscow State University (2016-2017), and another year teaching French culture and language at the Cambridge University (2017-2018). Her Ph.D. work is based on a comparison between post soviet anti-utopias, and north-american contemporary dystopias, trying to bridge the gap between the collapse of the USSR, and the collapse of the twin towers. Her Ph.D. thesis is entitled: From Homo Sovieticus to Mutants: Catastrophe, Humanity, Monstrosity, in Post-Soviet and North-American Contemporary Dystopia.

Alexandra OLTEANU is a Ph.D. student at the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași, and she is also a teaching assistant at the Petre Andrei University of Iași and at the Grigore T. Popa University of Medicine and Pharmacy. She has consistently researched the literature of the 19th century and the evolution of the Romanian novel. Articles (selectively): Configurarea genezei unui gen: Începuturile romanului românesc între substanță documentară și evocare melodramatică (2019); Ioan Bujoreanu și geografia melodramei în romanul românesc de pionierat. Axiologia spațialității decadent marginale (2020); „Geniu Pustiu” – Presiunea tradiției și reabilitarea modelului melodramatic în narațiunea istorică (2021). Areas of research: genre theory, literary history, historical novel, cultural studies, alternative literary canon.

Adrian OROȘANU has a BA in Philology from the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași, with a graduation paper on the journalistic work of Mihai Eminescu, and a MA in Religious Studies from the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Foreign Languages, with a dissertation paper on the functions of prayer in the New Testament from an immanent perspective. He also has German studies in Freiburg im Breisgau, Germany. He did several translations from English and German. Areas of research: philosophy of religion, cultural studies, political philosophy.

Andreia PĂDURE is a religion teacher at Ion Ghica Secondary School in Iași. She graduated from the Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, majoring in Romanian and French language and literature at the Ștefan cel Mare University Suceava, class of 2022, with a bachelor's thesis: L'expression poétique de la pensée religieuse de Victor Hugo. She published the article entitled: The Person: Eu tu/Eu el, in the Scientific Communications Session at the Theological Seminary of Iași, held on 15-16 October 2010. In 2013 she defended her dissertation for the completion of her MA in Didactics of the French Language and Intercultural Education at the Faculty of Letters of Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași, entitled: Les noms des fêtes orthodoxes en français: de la théorie à la pratique. Currently, she has submitted her dissertation for the first degree entitled: The Holy Spirit in creation: didactic approach to the contents related to the Person and work of the Holy Spirit. Orthodox perspective.

Horia Vicentiu PĂTRAȘCU, Ph.D., is a lecturer at the Department for Didactic Training and Socio-Human Sciences, Polytechnical University of Bucharest. He teaches courses in cognitive philosophy, philosophy of culture, philosophy of technical culture, communication strategies, European identity, intercultural communication. Books: Getting out of co-ownership. Philosophical-fantasy stories (2020), The Wallachian Ideal. Essays on the Abyssal Psychology of the Romanian People (2017), Pustiul binelui. Philosophical essays (2017), Therapy by Cioran: The Force of Negative Thinking (2014), The Metaphysical Feeling of Sadness (2010), Alone among Romanians (2009), On Ennui and Other Demons: Reflections and Exclamations (2005), Sine retractione (2001).

Alina-Viorela PRELIPCEAN, Ph.D., is a lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences. She has a BA in Spanish-English Language and Literature from the Faculty of Letters at Babeș-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca. Her research interests focus on Spanish language and literature, literary and specialized translation. She has participated in national and international conferences, colloquia and conferences, publishing numerous articles in specialized journals. She is the author of the book Verba dicendi în limbile română și spaniolă: privire comparativă (2015), co-author of the volume Vorbirea din Moldova and co-author of the dictionary Dicționar multilingv de construcții fixe (română-franceză-italiană-spaniolă-portugheză). Părți ale corpului (2020). She also collaborated in the translation of the book: J. Kabatek, Eugeniu Coșeriu. Pagini de exegeză și de reconstrucție biografică (2020). Since 2016 she is also an official DELE examiner.

Ioana ROSTOȘ, Ph.D., is a lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University in Suceava, the Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. She teaches, at the undergraduate level, German as a foreign language and German literature. Her areas of interest include, besides German and Germanic linguistics and literature, translation studies, as well as the culture and civilization of the pre-World War II Bukovina. She has published several non-fiction books (Persuasive Techniken in Versandhauskatalogen, Alfred Margul-Sperber als Mitarbeiter am Czernowitzer Morgenblatt, and Czernowitzer Morgenblatt. Eine Monografie), translations (Falko Blask, Michael Fuchs-Gamböck, Techno. O generație în extaz; Ioan Holender, Spuse, trăite, dorite. Amintiri; Armin Heinen, România, Holocaustul și logica violenței; Simon Geissbühler, Iulie însângerat. România și Holocaustul din vara lui 1941 etc.), and, as Jane Rostos, the novels IQ, La(u)ra and neOFICIAL.

Petronela SAVIN, Ph.D., is an associate professor at Vasile Alecsandri University of Bacău, specialist in ethnolinguistics. Her scientific activity has focused on studying food discourse as a reflection of the elements of culture and civilization. The solutions proposed by the questions raised by the study of food discourse from a cultural perspective were based on the corroboration of data from linguistic and ethnographic sources, with the data obtained from field research he conducted. The scientific results were reflected in the volume and articles published, as well as in the research projects she led or participated in: CNCSIS project PN II, PD, code. 583, Phraseological Dictionary. Onomasiological Field of Human Nutrition (2010-2012), postdoctoral research project Romanian terminology of nutrition, within POSDRU / 89 / 1.5 / S / 49944 (2010-2013), UEFISCDI project PN-III P2-2.1-BG-2016- 0390, Digitization of Food Cultural Heritage. Bacău County - eCULTFOOD (2016-2018), project PN-III-P2-2.1-PED-2019-5092, no. 569PED/2020, A Romanian Digital Repository on Food: Turning Heritage Knowledge Towards Society – FOODie.

Lavinia SEICIUC, Ph.D., is an associate professor at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Romania, where she teaches Romance and Spanish phonetics, morphology, lexicology, etc. She is the author of several books and numerous papers on euphemism, verb morphology, historical lexicology and traductology.

Iulia Simona SÎRGIHI-COVALCIUC, Ph.D., is an assistant at the Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava. She has a Ph.D. in Philology, with the thesis Radiophonic speech in a norm-imaginary-symbol. She is also coordinator of the university's radio station – USV Radio and editor-in-chief at Viva FM regional radio station. Research areas: linguistics, mass media, communication sciences, cultural studies.

Ovidiu D. SOLONAR, Ph.D., is a translator and teacher of English at the Mihai Viteazul High School in Bucharest. He holds a Ph.D. in Philology from the University of Bucharest and a postgraduate certificate in American culture and international relations at University of East Anglia, UK. Articles written and books translated (selection): Pop Culture as Ideology. Romanian Hipsters between Anti-Corporatism and Anti-Corruption (2015), Ways and Consequences of Cultural Transfer within Globalisation (2015), Cultural Narcissism and Popular Culture from the United States to Post-Communist Romania (2020), In Bluebeard's Castle. Notes Towards a Redefinition of Culture by George Steiner (2013), Incognito by David Eagleman (2016), The Culture of Narcissism by Christopher Lasch (forthcoming). Areas of research: literature, pop culture, international relations, cultural studies.

Arthur SUCIU, Ph.D., is a lecturer at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences. He holds a Ph.D. in Communication Sciences. His research topics include heteronomous discourse, post-communism, political communication. He recently published The Road to Privacy. Interpretations of the post-communist political discourse (2020). He has a BA in Philosophy.

Codruț ȘERBAN, Ph.D., is currently lecturer of American Studies at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Romania. His research interests include early American literature, Native American studies, westerns and the American West. He published three books and several articles on traditional Native American literatures and aspects related to the history of American culture and civilization.

Cosmina TIMOCE-MOCANU is a senior researcher at the Institute of Linguistics and Literature "Sextil Pușcariu" of the Romanian Academy. Her research interests include the history of Romanian ethnography, traditions in contemporary society, and story-telling at present. She has conducted field work in different localities in Transilvania and Dobrogea. She has published studies and articles in academic journals and in edited volumes. She is the author of the book Antropologia ritualului funerar. Trei perspective (Cluj-Napoca, 2013; An Anthropology of Funeral Rituals) and of the critical edition of primary sources Ion Mușlea, Schimburi epistolare cu respondenții la Chestionarele Arhivei de Folklor a Academiei Române, Volumul I: A- L (Cluj-Napoca, 2014), Volumul II: M – Z (Cluj-Napoca, 2015). She participated in several research projects, with national and international grants. She is a member of the Romanian Ethnology Association (Asociația de Științe Etnologice din România; since 2010), and of the Research Centre for Heritage and Cultural Anthropology (RHeA) at the West University of Timișoara (from 2016) and of the Ministry of Culture's National Commission for the Protection of National Immaterial Heritage (2017-2021).